

Rounds, Catches and Canons of England

Anonymous, Printed in 1609.

Jenkin, the jester

① Jen - kin, the jest - er, was wont to make glee, With
② Jar - vis, the jug - gler, till an - gry was he, Then
③ Wil - kin, the wise man, did wise - ly fore - see. That
④ jug - gler, and jes - ter, should gen - tly a - gree;
⑤ Hey, down, down, down, down, der - ry down, down, der - ry down, down.

A miller I would be

① A mil - ler, a mil - ler, a mil - ler I would be.
② To learn his craft as well as he.
③ By art to steal, by cun - ning to lie.
④ To get a poll - - ing pen - ny there - - by.

Now, Robin, lend to me thy bow

① Now, Ro - bin, lend _____ to me thy bow,
② Sweet Ro - bin, lend thy bow to me:
③ For I must now a hunt - ing with my la - dy go,
④ With my sweet